Information

Location: The Conference will be held at Eliot College at the University of Kent. The modern and comfortable buildings are situated on a wooded hill overlooking the historic city of Canterbury. The location is particularly convenient for those coming from the continent or London by train or car.

Accommodation: University-style accommodation is available on campus. Most rooms are single rooms, with en-suite bathroom and shower, bed-linen, towels and tea/coffee-making facilities. Only a small number of rooms offer twin beds; regrettably, family accommodation is limited. If you would like to take advantage of the accommodation at the University, please register as soon as possible.

It is essential that you occupy the room allocated to you and that you do not sleep elsewhere on the campus. Rooms must be vacated and the key returned to the relevant accommodation building office by 9.00 am on the day of your departure (including Friday and Saturday).

Please make sure that your booking for accommodation and/or meals is firm. Early departures and late cancellations or changes to arrangements will cost us non-refundable deposits and fees. If you must cancel, please DO NOT leave or stay away without the courtesy of letting us know in good time.

Registration and enquiries: Registration forms are available at www.biblecentre.org. Please send completed forms or address any enquiries to: Conference 2010, 8 The Chase, Bexleyheath, Kent DA7 5AT, UK; tel +44 (0)1322 553015; fax +44 (0)20 8854 5963; email maryloncross@aol.com.

Travel directions: The Campus can conveniently be reached from London City, London Gatwick and London Heathrow airports, Ashford International rail station and Dover and Folkestone ports. For more information, see www.biblecentre.org.

Arrival and registration: The University of Kent will not accommodate early arrivals. Please do not arrive before 3.00 pm on Tuesday, 13 April. On arrival, please collect your room key and name badge from our registration desk at Eliot College.

Parking: Ample parking is available, but you will need a permit from our registration desk. Please park only where authorised.

Transport help: If you can offer a spare seat to or from the Conference, please let us know.

On campus: Transport around the campus can be arranged, if needed, for the elderly, infirm, disabled, etc. PLEASE ASK FOR THIS SERVICE when returning the registration form.

Children are welcome but must be under control at all times, especially near the University offices and in the shared dining areas. Under-18s must be accompanied by a known, responsible adult who will monitor the minor during the course of the conference. A crèche for under-11s is planned. Parents are asked to take turns in the care of their children.

Security: Be vigilant, watch out for thieves! Leave nothing of value unattended. When on Campus, please wear your conference identity name badge! The badge is also your meal ticket. No badge - No food.

Costs: The conference is underwritten by Chapter Two. The total cost of the Conference, including accommodation, meals, translation equipment and overheads, is about £155 / €185 per head. No charge is made, and lack of funds should not prevent attendance by any sincerely exercised to come. We trust that the Lord will supply resources to help those who cannot afford to come and to meet all of the expenses. Gifts may be made by cheque or credit card to Chapter Two at any time, but it would be appreciated if they could be made when returning the registration form to cover up-front costs. UK taxpayers may make their gifts under the Gift Aid Scheme.

Hymn singing: The Spiritual Songs (1978) hymnbook will be used. Hymn books will be available for purchase from the Chapter Two bookstall (see below).

Bookstall: Chapter Two will offer a substantial range of Christian literature and materials for sale. A 10% discount will be offered to students on all purchases during the Conference. Website: www.chaptertwobooks.org.uk.
